Rules of the Kendra for Admission:

Nature cure treatment involves certain restrictions, which may cause inconvenience or discomfort to some individuals. Please read the contents mentioned below very carefully so that you are fully aware of the rules and restrictions of Nisargopachar Kendra ("kendra"). Kindly apply for admission only if you are willing to abide by the rules.

1. Use of intoxicants or stimulants like Tea, Coffee, Smoking, Alcohol, Gutkha or any such type of addiction is strictly prohibited at the kendra.
2. Diet other than that prescribed and served at the kendra is not allowed.
3. Health-seekers are not allowed to go out of the campus without prior permission of the doctor.
4. Application form for Indoor Admission (duly filled and signed) is subjected to clearance by the kendra. It will be scrutinized to ascertain eligibility. This process may take three to four working days. The application is cleared for provisional admission if the application passes eligibility criteria.
5. Provisional booking can be done on telephones, but Booking for the admission will be confirmed only after the application is cleared for provisional admission and after receiving the due booking deposit. A confirmation letter will be sent to you along with the booking details.
6. Even if the application is cleared for provisional admission, actual admission to the kendra will be only after the physical examination by our doctors. If any information declared in the application is found to be hidden or incorrect, admission can be denied and deposit will be forfeited. (If the medical condition of the applicant undergoes any major change after the application for booking, this must be informed immediately and confirmation should be sought again. Otherwise, admission may be denied after the physical examination).
7. The management reserves the right regarding admission or discharge of any health-seeker at any time.
8. In case of unforeseen or unavoidable circumstances, the management may need to change the accommodation category and/or duration or even cancel the booking. In such case, the booking deposit will be fully refunded. The management shall not be responsible for any other loss imparted to the health-seeker due to such change or cancellation.
9. Minimum Number of days stay for admission is 10 and Maximum number of days stay is 60.
10. Health-seekers below the age of 16 years and above 80 years and those weighing more than 150 kg are not eligible. However, relaxation can be made in case of health-seekers having genuine ailments subject to clearance by the Kendra.
11. Health-seekers with any kind of disabilities or others who require assistance for their personal care are required to arrange for their attendants on their own. It is advisable to arrange for the attendants of the same sex as attendants with opposite sex are not allowed to enter the treatment halls. Health-seekers also need to mention about their accommodation requirements while booking.
12. In event of cancellation, postponement, deciding to stay for a reduced number of days than intended at the time of booking or change in category of accommodation, health-seekers can get refund from the booking deposit as per the prevailing rules. Please refer the latest brochure of the kendra for the refund rules.
13. The charges for indoor services may be revised from time to time. The revised charges will be applicable for the duration of admission if it is changed after the date of booking.
14. At the time of admission, health-seekers must bring the Booking Confirmation letter sent by the Kendra.
15. All disputes are subjected to the jurisdiction of Vadodara.

I have read and fully understood the rules of the Kendra hereby mentioned and the details of charges and other details mentioned in the brochure and willingly accept the same.
